

Name: _____

Date: _____ Block: _____

The Great Depression Political Cartoons

7. What problems is Hoover experiencing?
8. What is he doing with the problems?
9. Who is receiving them?

4. Describe what the men look like.

5. What question is the last gentleman asking?
6. Why is this question ironic? What does it show about the time?

"Scuse me, Buddy, is this the bread-line or a run on a bank?"

Political cartoon from 1934, FDR and the "alphabet soup" agencies.

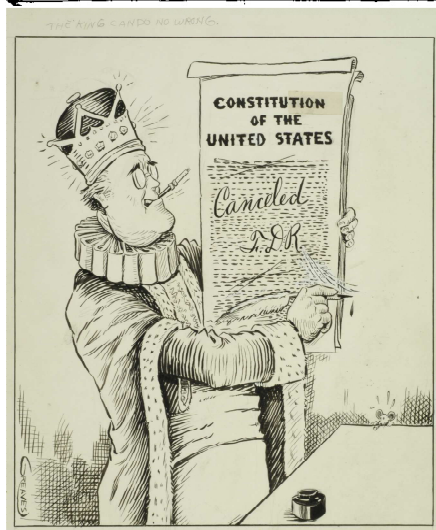

1. Who is standing in the middle of the children?
2. What do the children represent?
3. What is the general feeling or mood of this political cartoon? What does the mood say about how artist feels?

What a Man!

By Neils
Harding

Two Pairs of Pants and a Pair of Suspenders

15. Who is pulling the boat?

16. Where are they headed?

17. What does this cartoon suggest is going on?

18. How does the artist feel about the President?

13. What is the current state of agriculture?

14. What are they trying to give the farmers?

10. Who is the king in this political cartoon?

11. What has he done to the Constitution?

12. What does this imply? How does the artist feel about the "king" in this cartoon?